

WHY COACHING?

WHY: Athletes recognize the value of having a coach. Business people recognize the value of having a coach. Leaders in ministry deserve to be empowered to be the best they can be for Christ through coaching as well.

Logan and Carlton write, "God-centered coaching has the power to change lives...both your life and the lives of those you come into contact with." Coaching 101

WHO: Designed for pastors, lay leaders, ministry team leaders and all who are responsible to lead others. Don't underestimate the power of coaching to help your team realize their unique potential for God.

COACHING 101: An introduction to understanding the coaching process that will help you sharpen your coaching skills, and get you started in coaching others for more effectiveness in ministry.

COACHING 201: Learn additional skills to enhance your effectiveness as a coach.
